Harvey Watterson Killed.

Harvey Watterson, son of Henry Watterson editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, was instantly killed by a fall from a window of his law office on the nineteenth floor of the Trust Company of America building late Wednesday afternoon in New York city. It was from one of the side windows overlooking the United States Trust Company building that he fell and he landed on the roof of that building, nine stories below. Death, according to Coroner's Physician Lebane, must have been instantaneous. After a careful examination Dr. Lebane pronounced the fatality a case of accidental death.

The theory accepted by Dr. Lebane and held by Mr. Watterson's law partners, Thomas E. Wing and Philip W. Russell, and others in a position to have first-hand information, is that Mr. Watterson's hand slipped as he was endeavoring to close a window in his private office and that he fell forward as a result with such force that he was unable to catch the sides of the window or the sill. The fall is very low, reaching only to one's knees, and could afford little protection in such a circumstance.

Osteopathic Association.

Osteopathic physicians from Georgetown, Carlisle, Cynthia and Frankfort were in Paris Tuesday attending the meeting of the Central Kentucky Osteopathic Association held in the offices of Drs. Petree and Longan. Those present considered this the best meeting the Association has held.

Drought Finally Broken.

A general rain that in some portions reached the proportions of a storm broke the long drought and farmers throughout Kentucky are jubilant. All sections of the State received a goodly share of the precipitation and apparently no one was overlooked. The rain began here about midnight Monday and continued at intervals throughout the night, Tuesday and Tuesday night when a sudden fall in the temperature caused the rain to cease.

In Lexington Tomorrow.

The National Commission recently appointed by President Roosevelt to investigate and offer suggestions for the improvement of country life in America will arrive in Lexington tomorrow morning at 5.35 o'clock from Knoxville and spend a day here. The commission will hold its meeting or conference in Grange Hall, in the new agricultural building at State University, at 10 o'clock, and will there endeavor, by means of questions asked, to get at actual conditions as to farm living in the Bluegrass and Central Kentucky. Farmers and other business men who make their home in the country and all persons interested in the questions before the commission are invited to attend the meetings, join in the discussions and give such information as may be considered of interest. There will be no set speeches delivered.

RELIGIOUS.

—Dr. Butchart, of China, will preach at the Christian church Sunday, both morning and evening. He is one of the most eminent physicians and surgeons in that Empire and has been for seventeen years in his present field. He knows China as we do America. It will be worth going far to see and hear such a man. He and Elder Morgan are old friends.

—A rich experience is in store for those who attend the rally at the Christian church next Monday afternoon and evening.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

Speaks Well of Him.

The Chicago Record-Herald, a Republican paper, says:

"Mr. Bryan's ambition was thoroughly legitimate and honorable. He undoubtedly wished and hoped to serve the country with single-minded devotion. But he has the consolation of knowing that, albeit in a different spirit and after a different manner, the main policies which he has eloquently advocated in common with Roosevelt and Taft will be continued and extended."

"Moreover, Mr. Bryan has nobly and sincerely preached to his fellowmen and 'peace' that is 'the reward of conscience void of offense toward God and man.' The humblest citizen, he has said, can secure that peace, that satisfaction, equally with him who wields great power. Mr. Bryan will never be 'a humble citizen,' for he is too gifted for such a role. He has a strong hold on the affection of millions, and as an orator, writer and moral leader his place is high among the contemporaries. High it will remain, and his third defeat after a brilliant campaign should bring him no bitterness and lasting sorrow."

Teddy's Day to Shout.

Of course it is Theodore Roosevelt's day to shout, and we would not if we could inflict upon him the terrible punishment of silence, says the Philadelphia Record. But the election is not much of a victory for him after all. The country elected Mr. Taft not because he was Mr. Roosevelt's candidate, but in spite of it. After the turmoil and agitation and distrust which he has succeeded in inflicting upon the country, the voters took Mr. Taft because he is the most conservative of all the candidates in the field. There was legislation in restraint of corporations and there were prosecutions of corporations before the Roosevelt era, and they aroused no public distrust and did not knock the bottom out of the market. McKinley and Harrison maintained the right of the community to protect itself from mismanaged corporations, but they did not threaten anybody; they did not attack wealth, property or even corporate management. Under Mr. Taft there be further corporation legislation and there may be prosecutions of railroads and industrials. But there will be no such language in messages to Congress, in speeches and letters for publication, as the President has been distinguished for, and the ordinary course of legislation and litigation will proceed as it did before Theodore Roosevelt anointed himself as the apostle of righteousness, the general manager of the United States, and the placator of the social revolution, which, so far as it exists at all, is of his own creation.

A Republican Congress.

When, after his inauguration next March, President Taft calls the Sixty-first Congress together in special session he will have a Republican majority in both houses to carry out that policy of tariff revision to which he is personally pledged by his public utterances, and to which his party is bound by its platform promises. While the majority is not so overwhelmingly as that elected with Theodore Roosevelt four years ago, and while Democratic gains in such States as Colorado, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Iowa are not without significance, the House is still strongly, the Senate overwhelmingly Republican.

There has been no Democratic Congress since the one elected with Grover Cleveland in 1892. That Congress, the Fifty-third, contained in the Senate 44 Democrats, 33 Republicans and 3 Populists, and in the House a tidal wave majority of 220 Democrats to 126 Republicans. Two years later both branches of Congress became Republican and they have so remained.

The Roosevelt tidal wave of 1904 carried 250 Republicans into office as Representatives and left only 36 Democrats; the Senate in the new Congress stood 58 to 32. The present Senate has a two-thirds Republican majority, 61 to 31; and in the House there are now 224 Republicans and 167 Democrats. These proportions will not be greatly changed as to relieve the majority party of its full measure of legislative responsibility.

The chief "stand-patter" of the country must preside over a tariff-revision House, unless platform pledges are made only to be broken. Speaker Cannon won in the Eighteenth Illinois District two years ago by 10,000 votes. The campaign against him this year has been one of extraordinary vigor and virulence and has attracted national attention. He is apparently elected by a greatly reduced plurality to preside over the framing and passage of a reformed tariff.

Trusts are Trusts.

Speaking of trusts, says the Todd County Progress? We want to ask our good farmer friends what they think of the bunch of thieves that compel us poor devils on a country paper to pay $12 more a ton for the white paper we use than he did several years ago, while the cost of producing paper has increased only 60 cents per ton? There can't be anything meaner than the Tobacco Trust, but there are others that come pretty near reaching that stage of highway robbery.

Lime Water Good for Teeth.

Physicians who have experimented believe that excellent results are obtained for the teeth by the use of simple lime water. It is claimed that the reason of the fine bony structures of people and horses in the blue-grass region of Kentucky is due to the lime-soaked vegetation. It is argued that a mild amount of lime taken into the system when a child will improve the structural condition of the teeth.

Shower of Sulphur.

Charolles, a small town 30 miles from Macon, in France, has recently been visited by a shower of sulphur. The roofs, gardens, fields, vineyards, rivers and ponds were covered with a yellow dust, and for some time the peasants in the fields were troubled by a sulphurous biting odor which made breathing difficult.

Cat Photographers.

A young woman looking for rugs told a Broadway salesman that she wanted a shade to match her cat. Speaking of cats, there are photographers in the city who make a specialty of posing cats for pictures. A studio in Harlem has specified hours for posing.—New York Press.

And That's the Truth.

One of the most inconsequential idiosyncrasies on earth is the one who weighs about 110 pounds, and is always crowing about how he wears a No. 5 shoe to someone who weighs 200.

Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Hololias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Hololias we have a medication which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Hololias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and a general (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Hololias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)." Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

Microbes in Ink.
A scientist has found microbes of various kinds in 77 samples of ink—red, blue and black—supplied to schools, and some of the microbes were deadly enough to kill mice incubated with them.

The Women of Belgium.
No one can travel in Belgium without being struck by the extraordinary activity and prominence of the women. Over the doors of shops of all descriptions the name of the owner or owners is frequently followed by "Soeurs" or "Veuve." You find them proprietors of hotels and restaurants.
They are often custodians of the churches. They are employed to tow the boats along the canal banks. They cut up the meat in the butchers' shops,
and they are even to be noticed shoeing horses at the forge.

The Lily of France.
There is a pretty tradition about the lily of France. Three black toads formed the curious device on the shield of King Clovis, but one night as an aged hermit sat musing in his lonely cell
there appeared an angel before him bearing a shield of wondrous beauty.
On its azure front three golden lilies shone like radiant stars. This shield the angel bade the hermit deliver to Queen Clothilde. Receiving the celestial shield Clothilde gave it to the king, whose arms thenceforth were always victorious.—St. James' Gazette.

How a Cat Caught Two Rats.
I once had a cat who did a rather remarkable ratting feat. He stalked two young rats on the eaves of a low flat stable roof and caught one in the usual way. The other jumped on to an elderberry tree just below.

Bob, however, not satisfied with the one, grasped it firmly in his mouth and then jumped headlong for the other.
Either he was very lucky or extraordinarily agile, for he fell to the ground with one rat still in his mouth and the other in his paws and promptly killed them both.—Scotsman.

Alphabet in Bible Verse.
In the twenty-first verse of the seventh chapter of Ezra can be found every letter of the English alphabet.
It runs thus: "And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily."

But, still more wonderful, in the eighth verse of the third chapter of Zephaniah is contained every letter, including finals, of the Hebrew language.—Westminster Gazette.

Ancient Glassmaking.
When the council of ten ruled Venice they issued a decree regarding the art of glassmaking. It runs: "If a workman carry his art beyond the limits of his country to the detriment of the republic, he shall be desired to return. If he disobey, his nearest relatives shall be imprisoned. If, in spite of their imprisonment, he remain obstinate in his wish to live abroad, an emissary shall be told off to kill him."

Scotland's Strange Birds.
From the small island of St. Kilda, off Scotland, 20,000 young gannets and an immense number of eggs are annually collected, and, although this bird lays only one egg per annum and its four years in obtaining its maturity, its numbers do not diminish. Obviously such birds must reach a great age or they would long ago have been exterminated.

Hymn 333.
A youth named Harry Jordan sat at an examination at one of the eastern colleges. When he learned the result he telegraphed to his people:

"Hymn 333, verse 5, last two lines.
Harry."

The anxious father turned to his hymn book and read the comforting
couplet:

"Sorrow vanquished, labor ended, Jordan passed."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Partial Acquaintance.
Mrs. James, who is very tall, almost six feet, had called upon Mrs. Brown and, while sitting in her parlor, had made friendly overtures toward little Junior Brown. The child had gone out of the room before she arose to go.
Meeting him in the street the next day, Mrs. James said, "Don't you know me, Junior?"

"I know your face," answered Junior, peering resolutely upward, "but not the rest of you. I-I didn't s'pose there was so much of you."—Woman's Home Companion.

Temporarily Indisposed.
One of the workers in a Chinese mission became much interested in two Chinamen who, she found, owned a flourishing laundry business in her own home neighborhood. She looked in once in awhile to see how things were going with them and one morning found Sam smiling and cheerful
as usual, but John was missing.

"Where is John this morning?" she asked.

"Oh," answered Sam amiably, "Chin-tian gen'tleman hit him in the head with a blick, and he all same in hospital!"—New York Times.

A Thief's Ruse.
Early one morning, many years ago,
a burglar was running at the top of his speed along a London thoroughfare, pursued by a lady, who vociferated
"Stop thief!" A milkman intercepted the fugitive, who promptly exclaimed:
"For heaven's sake, let me go. It's my wife, and she'll just about kill me."

The milkman was a married man himself, and he allowed the malefactor to escape.

The Sunflower.
In some countries, notably in the Russian provinces north of the Caucasus, the sunflower serves other purposes besides ornamenting gardens with its huge golden bosses. The seeds are used to make oil, which is employed both in the manufacture of soap and in cooking. The stems and leaves are burned and the ashes used to make potash.

Locking the Telephone.
The telephone began to ring in the lawyer's office. He unlocked the little padlock on it, answered the call, then carefully padlocked it again.
"I always do that now," said he, "on account of my friends. I didn't the first month I took the office. At the end of that month I had a bill of $33.95, telephone calls. Oh, yes; long distance and every other kind."—New York Press.

Not the Boy He Wanted.
"So you want a position as office boy?"
"Yes, sir."
"Are you perfectly truthful?"
"Yes, sir."
"Never tell lies, eh?"
"No, sir."
"Then you won't do. I want a boy who can say I'm not here when I am and get away with it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Cynical Jowett.
Professor Jowett's comments on the young men of Balliol often took the form of crushing sarcasms. "The college, Mr. X., thinks highly of you," he once said, "perhaps too highly, but not half so highly, I am sure, as you think of yourself." After a lengthy survey of one's person, as if one was some rare animal, he has been known to ask of the instructor, "Mr. A. is an intelligent young man, is he not, Mr. Y.?"

A Curious Fish.
There is a fish with four eyes along the sandy shores of tropical American seas. It is the anableps and is unique among vertebrates on account of the division of the cornea into upper and lower halves by a dark horizontal stripe and the development of two pupils to each orbit. One pair of these appears to be looking upward, the other sideward.

"I hope you came out of that last horse trade of yours with a clear conscience."
"Yes," answered Si Simling, "but it kind o' worries me. My conscience is so unusually clear that I can't help

His Act.
"Father," said young Si Cornsilk, "I have long desired to go on the stage,
and now, with your permission"— Hosea Cornsilk thoughtfully stroked
his flame colored chin beard.
"All the world's a stage, my son," he said gently. "Take that hoe and dig up the potatoes in the half acre field
behind the hogan."

The engagement lasted a week.—

History.
When Sir Robert Walpole retired into private life time hung heavy on his hands, and Horace exerted himself to amuse his father. One day he offered to read to him.

"What will you read, child?" asked Sir Robert wearily.

Horace suggested history.
"No, no," replied the veteran statesman; "not history, Horace; that can't be true."

Unhappy Hindoo Women.
The Hindoo holy books forbid a woman to see dancing, hear music, wear jewels, blacken her eyebrows, eat daily food, sit at a window or view herself in a mirror during the absence of her husband and allow him to divorce
her if she has no sons, injures his property, scolds him, quarrel. With another woman or presumes to eat before he has finished his meal.—Liverpool Mercury.

The first work done in the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, each day is the preparation of breakfast for 1,200 employees. The last of these meals is served usually before the earliest rising guest sleepily orders his eggs and coffee, thinking himself almost a hero
to be breakfasting at such an hour.

"I can't stay long," said the chairman of the committee from the colored church. "I just come to see ef yo'
wouldn't join de mission band."

"Po' de lan' sakes, honey," was the reply, "doan' come to me! I can't even play a mouf organ!"—Ladies' Home

"Looks like rather poor soil in this part of the country," said the inquisitive stranger.

"Well, it ain't," replied the boastful native. "A man over on the adjoining

it one day a week or two ago."—Chicago News.

"Lobelia," demanded Mr. McSwat,
"I want to know what you've been doing to my safety razor?"

"Nothing," was Mrs. McSwat's indignant answer, as she moved around

I don't believe it's a safety razor, anyway!"—Chicago Tribune.

Rector—Susie, I was sorry not to see your father at church this morning.
Susie—Please, no, sir. He went out walking in the woods. Rector—Ah, Susie, I'm afraid that your father does not fear the Lord. Susie—Guess he does, too. He took his gun with him.—

"He has everything to make a woman happy." "On the contrary, he has nothing but wealth." "Dear me!
What more can a woman ask of her husband than that he have wealth?"
"That he have brains, beauty, bravery!" "But"—"Or, failing these,
heart disease!"—Exchange.

"We are what we feed on," quoted
Mr. Hixson, laying down his book.
"and I am willing to say the author is right. For example"—

"I am already a believer," Mrs. Hixson interrupted. "You will insist on having lobster for supper always."—

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 Congress street, Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother, who old and very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advised remedies, but the cough
continued until I bought a 50 cent bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result was followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough remedies." Sold under guarantee at —The Lyceum Course consisting of four numbers will open at the opera house Thursday evening, Nov. 19 at 8 o'clock, with the Gertrude Miller Concert Company. Tickets go on sale Monday afternoon at the drug store of Smith & Wadell. Reserved seats 50 cents; general admission 35 cents. Season tickets $1.00; 10 cents extra for each number if you want reserved seats. All school children who attend with either of the colleges can get reserved seats for $1 on a season ticket. These rates are extremely low and we placed them within the reach of all. You surely will not hesitate to give up the dollar for four entertainments of a high class in which all the participants are artists.

—Miss Gertrude Goodwin Miller is best described by the Maud Adams of the Lyceum. Her charming personality and intense earnestness are only incidental to her complete transformation to the various characters she assumes. So perfect is her art, so well modulated is her strong full voice, so graceful and natural her every movement, that you do not see Miss Miller on the stage you see only the creatures of her imagination and your joy, or sadness, or anxiety is her joy or sadness or anxiety. Miss Miller will be supported by an exceptionally strong company. Mr. Johann Mayer, is a pianist of unusual brilliancy and we predict that his piano numbers will be one of the popular features of the program, completely refuting the time-honored idea that piano solos don't go in out town.

—Mrs. W. A. Miller left Wednesday for a ten days visit to her brothers, Messrs. Ben D. and Wm. Best, in Cincinnati.

—Messrs. W. V. Shaw, C. E. Bryant, T. E. Clark, J. M. Caldwell and Dr. C. B. Smith left Wednesday for a three weeks hunting expedition near Greenville, Miss.

Former Senator Killed in Duel.

Former Senator Edward Ward Carmack, editor of the Tennessean, was shot and killed at Nashville Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock by Robin Cooper, a son of Col. Duncan B. Cooper. Mr. Carmack was going north on Seventh Avenue and Col. Cooper and his son, Robin, were approaching Seventh Avenue on Union street. Soon after the came in sight of one another the shooting began, Robin Cooper, it is said, fired three shots and Senator Carmack twice.

Col. Duncan B. Cooper drew his pistol, but did not fire. Senator Carmack fell to the ground, dying instantly. Robin Cooper was shot in the right shoulder, but was not badly hurt. The trouble is one of the results of the recent Democratic gubernatorial primary in which Carmack was defeated.

The tragedy was the absorbing topic in Tennessee Tuesday. Robin Cooper, who fired the fatal shots and was himself wounded, is under arrest at a hospital. Col. D. B. Cooper has been removed from police headquarters to the jail. Friends of Carmack are loud in their condemnation of the Coopers.

Thousands of people from all over Tennessee attended the funeral of former Senator E. W. Carmack at Columbia. The number of floral offerings probably was the largest ever seen at a funeral in Tennessee, and there was marked manifestation of popular grief. After simple services at the Methodist church the body was buried with Masonic honors.

John D. Sharpe, an ex-sheriff, was arrested at Nashville, yesterday charged with murder and aiding and abetting in the murder of Senator Carmack. It is alleged that Sharpe was seen with the two Coopers shortly before the killing and also at the scene of the tragedy immediately after Carmack fell to the ground.

Industry Seeking New Location.
A proposition has been submitted by a manufacturer of wire fencing from an Indiana town to the officers of the Paris Commercial Club and if the Club accepts the proposition that has been submitted to it the manufacturer will take steps to remove his factory to this city in the near future. The manufacturer asks for a suitable site for the location of the plant and also that the citizens of Paris subscribe $20,000 in stock which will equal the present value of the plant, it being proposed to double the output. The matter will be taken up at a special meeting of the club to be held this week. If the new industry is secured it will turn out 15 tons of finished product per day and will furnish employment for about fifty skilled mechanics.

that these Hat Pins are made out of real live roses, changed entirely into metal by a secret process, preserving every detail of the rose from which each pin is made. They can not break, and will last forever. This discovery is without doubt one of the lost arts of the ancient Egyptians. They are the most beautiful of all Hat Pins. No two are alike. Finished in five colors, to conform to the prevailing fashions in millinery. Made in six sizes, from the smallest rose bud to the full blown flower. These pins are made by the genuine "DELAMOTHE" secret process, the only process by which an open rose can be perfectly metalized. Don't buy an inferior imitation. All genuine "DELAMOTHE" Metalized Real Rose Hat Pins have
the name stamped on the pin.

We have the exclusive sale of "DELAMOTHE" products for this city. See the exhibit in our window of this wonderful discovery.

Voted Twice.

Sir Gavan Duffy, formerly speaker of the legislative assembly of Victoria, was once returned to his seat by a single vote majority. On visiting his constituents subsequently, he was received with a special warmth by an Irish fellow countryman.
"And so," said Sir Gavan Duffy to his friend, "you were one of my supporters."
"No, sir," was the reply. "I was two of them."

The Boss.

"But," exclaimed the man of delicate sensibilities, "will your conscience permit you to do as you suggest?"
"Look here, friend," answered the New York politician, "I am accustomed to be boss even of my own conscience."
—Washington Star.

Not Modesty.

"Sometimes," said the press humorist, "I think my jokes are rotten. I suppose that's my modesty."
"No," explained a friend, "that's your common sense." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

They Certainly Keep It Dusted.

Women in all lands are the custodians of speech. They preserve its purity. To them must go much of the credit of the improvement in American English.—New York World.

Used to It.

She—I suppose it would break your heart if I were to say that I can only be a sister to you. He—Not at all. I'm used to having girls say that.—Exchange.

Do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of.—Franklin.

How to Cure a Cold.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee. nov

In the Light of Fortune.

Fortune displays our virtues and our vices, as light makes all objects apparent.—La Rochefoucauld.

How to Treat a Sprain.

Sprains, swellings and lameness are promptly relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This liniment reduces inflammation and soreness so that a sprain may be cured in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee. nov

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

INVITATION TO PUBLIC.

The opening and dedicatory services of the new Public School Building are being arranged for Friday evening, Nov. 20, at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. F. W. Hitt, President of Central University, at Danville, has accepted the invitation extended by the Board of Education to deliver the opening address. Other addresses will be made by Hon. Claude M. Thomas and Prof. G. W. Chapman.

The music will be under the direction of the teacher in music, Miss O'Brien.

The public is cordially invited to attend these exercises which are anticipated with great pleasure and you will have an opportunity to see your new building in completion. "It is a thing of beauty" and we trust will be "a joy forever."

F. L. LAPSLEY,

Secretary Board of Education.

Life's Requirements.

Thou must command and win, or erve and lose, suffer or triumph, be an anvil or a hammer.—Goethe.

Olive Oil Culture.

Owing to the strict government inspection, practically all Italian export olive oil is pure on leaving Italy. For home consumption there is hardly a sufficiency, from year to year, necessitating large imports of cotton-seed oil from America; and this has induced the government to take special action toward the improvement of olive culture.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites should always be kept in the house for the following reasons:

First—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it.

Second—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well.

Third—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength.

Fourth—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.

No household should be without it.

Bad Eggs.

Seated in a dark, cool cellar, a lighted candle in one hand, three eggs in the other, the egg candler talked. "No egg is unsalable," said he. "You can sell an egg when there's nothing left of it but the shell. Who buys it then? The kid glove maker. He beats his kids soft in a yolk bath, and the ripper that great foaming yellow bath is the more joyously the kid glove maker splashes about in it. Here's a half dozen fresh broken, O. K. but for the shells. The confectioners'll take 'em. This couple is what you might call fair—what your grocer would term 'fresh'; not 'new laid' nor 'best fresh'—only 'fresh.' Such eggs you could stand in a Spanish omelet, but not boiled. We'll split them and sell the yolks to low class bakers and the whites to papermakers for sizing."

Easily Pleased.

If you wish to make a Baganda perfectly happy, all you need to do is to say, "Way wally," which means a sort of supremely earnest "Well done." The moment this talismanic expression has left your lips the native to whom it is addressed will probably fall on his knees, and, clasping his two hands together, will sway them from side to side as if he were playing a concertina, while all the time his face beams with a most benignant and compulsive smile, and he purrs "A-o, a-o, a-o," as much as to say, "My cup of joy is overflowing."—Winston Churchill in Strand Magazine.

Fruitful Comparison.

"That girl is a peach," enthusiastically remarked a spectator. "Yes," said another, "and she is the apple of her father's eye." "She and young Binks would make a fine pair," suggested a third. "But," objected another in the group, "a fellow like Binks would find her something of a lemon in the garden of love."

The cynical bystander who had been listening butted in at this point. "I don't know the young lady," he said dryly, "but she seems to be very fruitful in her resources."—Baltimore American.

A Person to Be Avoided.

"Palanquin is certainly a man to avoid. People have told me stories about him which are not edifying." "Really? You do well to tell me, for I need not now give him back the money he loaned me."—Paris Figaro.

Getting Desperate.

Dolly—There's Miss Oldgirl. She used to say she would never marry until she got an excellent proposal. May—And now? Dolly—Oh, now she's dropped the "excellent."—Illustrated Bits.

A Noisy Caucus.

"Papa, will you tell me one thing?" "Yes, my son." "If crows were to hold a meeting and swear at one another, would that be what they call a caw-cuss?"

LOOKING BACKWARD.

What is the Earliest Event in Life You Can Remember?

"I can remember back to my fourth year," said a physician. "I was four during the Philadelphia Centennial of 1876, and I remember two Centennial scenes well. One was a great room full of brass band instruments—horns so big and yellow and shiny that they delighted me. I remember, too, a Turkish coffee room. My father took me into this room. Turks in native dress served the coffee. I liked the place at first; then I saw that it was noisy. The native waiters shouted horribly. I was frightened. I was on the point of tears, but whether I cried or not I can't tell you."

"I can remember back to the time when I was three," said a lawyer. "At the age of three my family took me to Cape May. I saw my father out in the water. He laughed and held out his arms to me, and, all dressed, I ran into the sea to him."

"All of us," said a psychologist, "can remember back to our fourth year. Some of us can even remember back to the second year. It would make an interesting article, a compilation of the earliest memories of a lot of people. The trouble, as a rule, is to fix the date of these memories, so as to be sure of our age at the time."—Pittsburg Press.

PUNCTUATION.

Originated by Aristophanes and Revived by Charlemagne.

Punctuation by means of stops and points, so as to indicate the meaning of sentences and assist the reader to a proper enunciation, is ascribed originally to Aristophanes, a grammarian of Alexandria, Egypt, who lived in the third century B. C. Whatever his system may have been, it was subsequently neglected and forgotten, but was reintroduced by Charlemagne, the various stops and symbols being designed by Wernfried and Aleuin.

The present system of punctuation was introduced in the latter part of the fifteenth century by Aldus Manutius, a Venetian printer, who was responsible for our full stop, colon, semicolon, comma, marks of interrogation and exclamation, parenthesis and dash, hyphen, apostrophe and quotation marks. These were subsequently copied by other printers until their use became universal.

Most ancient languages were innocent of any system of punctuation. In many early manuscripts the letters are placed at equal distances apart, with no connecting link between, even in the matter of spacing, an arrangement which must have rendered reading at sight somewhat difficult.—Chicago News.

The above table gives the results of Wednesday's primary by precincts. It was impossible for us to get the vote on the races of the officers that had no opposition. The race between Sidney G. Clay and John T. Collins overshadowed the interest taken in the minor races.

The Representative race was bitterly contested. The most prominent issue was the county unit bill. Mr. Collins having stated in a card that he was in favor of the bill, and Mr. Clay remaining uncommittal on the matter. The total vote reached near 2,500. Mr. Clay was the victor with a majority of 127 votes.

The election passed off quietly, not the slightest friction resulting in any of the twenty precincts.

The vote for magistrate in the Paris precinct resulted: L. J. Fretwell, 453; M. J. Murphy, 192; C. F. Diddle, 160; Fretwell's plurality, 261 and majority 101.

In the Ruddle's Mills magisterial district George K. Redmon defeated Jake Keller, present incumbent, by 15 votes.

In the Little Rock magisterial district W. H. Squires defeated T. D. Crouch for Magistrate by 45 majority.

The ticket elected is an unusually strong one, and one that will be hard to beat in November 1909.

W. H. McClintock leads the ticket by receiving 1,533 votes for Assessor, giving him 934 majority over his opponent.

H. O. James received the next highest number of votes, 1694, his majority over his opponent being 590.

F. L. McChesney was next with 1,650, giving him a majority of 614.

The Representatives race and the race for County Attorney were the only close races.

Raising Funds For Morgan Statue

The members of the Lexington chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy have sent out a circular letter asking for contributions to the big bazar, which will be given under the auspices of the First Kentucky regiment, at the Armory in Louisville, from November 30 to December 6, the proceeds of which will be applied to the fund for the erection of an equestrian statue of Gen. John H. Morgan in Lexington.

The letter called attention to the fact that contributions of whatever kind will be welcome and that the committee in charge of the bazar believe if the contributions are as generous as they expect, the entire balance required for the monument fund may be raised.

H. O. JAMES,

The hustling Democrat who won the nomination for Jailer of Bourbon county.

WM. H. WEBB,

The popular young Democrat, who won the nomination for Circuit Clerk.

Seventeen Divorce Suits.

There are seventeen divorce suits filed for the November term of the Bourbon Circuit Court. It would seem that marriage has been a failure in Bourbon.

Cake Sale Postponed.

The ladies of the Baptist church have postponed their cake sale until Saturday, Dec. 5.

Addition to the Navy.

Initial steps for the construction of another monster battleship for the American navy were taken Tuesday when proposals for its construction were opened at the Navy Department. This will be known as battleship No. 31, and already has been designated by the President to be called the Utah.

Will Distribute Federal Pie.

Senator-elect W. O. Bradley, Congressman John W. Langley, J. B. Bennett and D. C. Edwards and Postmaster Frank Fisher have formed a combination to control Federal patronage in Kentucky. Senator Bradley will, of course be the most influential of the group, but all have agreed to stand together and applicants without their indorsements will stand little chance of getting any of the pie.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED.

Some Paris People Have Learned to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them. You can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are strong and well, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong healthy kidneys.

P. O'Malley, W. Main street, Carlisle, Ky., says: "When about twenty-one years of age I did some heavy lifting and sprained my back. From that time on I was bothered by the most acute backaches, sometimes disappearing for a week, but always returning with renewed severity. About two years ago when I started working as a blacksmith, the constant bending and stooping required aggravated my trouble and to say that I was in misery hardly expresses my condition. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and as they were advertised to cure such troubles as mine I got a box. I took them according to directions and after a few doses felt relieved. Continuing with them for a short time longer, my trouble entirely disappeared and I have not had a return of it since. I give Doan's Kidney Pills all the praise for curing me and should I ever feel the slightest return of the annoyance, I would immediately resort to their use."

Plenty of proof like this from Paris people. Call at J. A. Wilson's drug store and ask what customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Teachers Pay Roll Delayed.

The following letter has been received by Superintendent McChesney from the Kentucky Department of Education at Frankfort:

November 6, 1908. To County Superintendent McChesney: The pay-roll for next week will not be ready. Taxes are late. I hope to send checks soon. Will notify you. Yours very truly,

J. G. CRABBE, Supt.

Re-hearing Denied.

The Federal Court of Appeals, composed of Judges Grovescup, Baker and Seaman, Tuesday denied the Government's petition for a rehearing before the court of the $29,000,000 Standard Oil Company case. The court sustained its original ruling, reversing the decision of Judge and remanding the case to him for re-trial. It is believed that

Attorney General Bonaparte will at once take the case to the Supreme Court on a writ of certiorari.

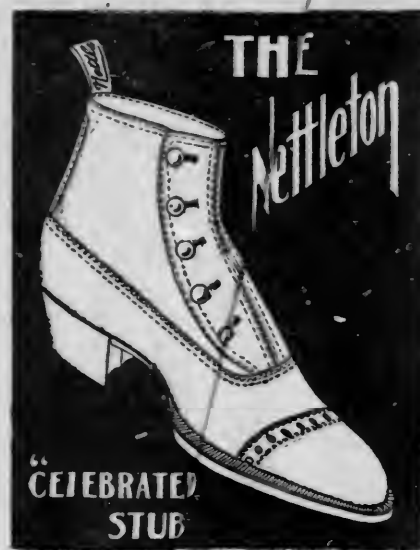

Morse Denied Bail.

Charles W. Morse was denied bail by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals and he will remain in the Tombs at least until December 3, when his application for a writ of Certiorari comes up.

Postmaster Arrested

Grant Triplett, postmaster at Moore's Ferry, Bath county, was tried before United States Commissioner Wood, in Mt. Sterling Monday, on the charge of selling whisky without paying a Government tax, and is in jail there under $500 bond, being held to the Federal Court at Catlettsburg. Triplett is prominently connected in Bath county.

Jeff Jackson, County, Wins—No. 23.
